

SWATHLib

Technical Manual and Common Usage

Toan K. Phung

November 16, 2018

Contents

Contents	1
0.1 Introduction	1

0.1 Introduction

SWATHLib is an attempt at creating an automated workflow for creation of manually curated spectral library for SWATH downstream analysis. The program itself is composed of two main component, the front-end created using TypeScript with the Angular framework and the back-end created using Python with Tornado as the server implementation.